

Hosted by the Independents Section of AFSA, this conference is the main event for owners/operators of independent finance companies providing traditional installment/personal loans, auto financing through independent auto dealers, mortgages, and other types of sales financing. The conference offers new ideas in compliance, legal and regulatory issues, technology, funding, human capital management, and new business opportunities.

Attendees are CEOs and senior executives from independently owned finance companies, and industry suppliers and representatives from major financial services companies who are interested in networking with independent operators. This includes professionals in accounting, compliance, funding, human resources, legal/legislative, marketing and operations.
